

ATHLETE SELECTION CRITERIA FOR BOYS 2026 NATIONAL JUNIOR DEVELOPMENT SQUAD

BOYS NATIONAL JUNIOR DEVELOPMENT SQUAD MISSION

To identify the next generation of Australian male surfing talent to provide them with early exposure to the high performance surfing environment.

OBJECTIVES

To identify and select eight high-potential male surfers aged 12–16 (pre-emerging) to participate in two National Development Camps in 2026. The first camp will be delivered from 24–27 March at the Surfing Australia High Performance Centre. The second camp will be held in August (exact dates coming soon).

Athletes will experience a national high-performance environment including peer-to-peer learning, technical and tactical coaching, physical preparation support, and performance mindset development. All 8 selected athletes will be expected to attend both camps. Camp costs will be funded by Surfing Australia, with successful athletes responsible for travel expenses.

SELECTION PROCESS

Selection of 8 Athletes for National Junior Development Squad

A total of 8 athletes will be selected based on the eligibility requirements and selection criteria outlined below. These 8 athletes will be expected to attend two National Development Camps, with travel and camp costs covered.

Where a selected athlete cannot attend the camp, the next best ranked athlete as per the selection criteria will be provided the opportunity and invited to attend for that specific camp. The originally selected athlete will retain their place in the program for the subsequent camp provided it falls in the same calendar year. This process will be communicated to the reserve athlete and forms a condition of accepting their position.

ATHLETE ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for assessment, athletes must be:

- Be turning no younger than 12 years of age or older than 16 years of age during the 2026 calendar year
- Not currently nationally-identified in the Surfing Australia High Performance Program.
- Be an Australian citizen and eligible and available to represent Australia in international competition.
- Be a registered member of their State Body (SSO)
- Comply with all relevant SA policies and rules as amended from time to time
- Maintain the high standard of personal behaviour expected of an athlete
- Not bring themselves, the sport, SA or any of its partners into disrepute
- Not be subject to any suspension or disqualification imposed by Surfing Australia, state they are member of or other surfing authority having jurisdiction over the athlete or the competition.
- Be aspiring to a career as a competitive surfer
- Have strong work ethic and commitment

SELECTION CRITERIA

Athletes are selected against a criteria consisting of:

COMPONENTS	WEIGHT

SELECTION PANEL

Athlete selections will be determined by the National Junior Development Squad Selection Panel. The panel comprises key members of the Surfing Australia High Performance Program and a State Representative. The composition of the panel ensures the knowledge and capability required to make informed athlete selection decisions.

The Selection Panel shall be made up of the following members:

1. Head of Pathway Program
2. Talent Pathway Coach
3. State Representative
4. Judge Specialist
5. Independent Coach

NOTIFICATION

Successful athletes for the 2026 program will be notified by 4th March 2026.

Selection applies to the 2026 calendar year only. Athletes must re-apply for consideration in future years.

Unsuccessful athletes will also be notified; however, individual feedback will not be provided.

INJURY

If a selected athlete becomes injured or otherwise unable to attend a National Development Camp:

- The next eligible reserve athlete will be offered the position for that specific camp.
- If the originally selected athlete is later cleared to return, they will retain their place in the program for the subsequent camp provided it falls in the same calendar year.

This process will be communicated to the reserve athlete and forms a condition of accepting their temporary position.

APPEALS

Decisions made by the Selection Panel are final and are not subject to appeal, in accordance with Surfing Australia policy.
